

Rachel Pether, CFA

Television News Anchor, Events Host, Co-Founder of "The Speakeasy Club"

Rachel is a television news anchor, professional emcee and moderator, CFA Charterholder, chartered treasurer and published author. Through years of practical experience, she has a unique mix of skills in broadcasting and the financial markets.

A trained journalist with over 6 years' experience at the BBC, Rachel currently hosts two television shows produced by FintechTV – Digital Asset Report (focused on blockchain, innovation and digital assets) and TheIMPACT (focused on sustainability). She acts as MC for numerous international high-profile events (see details under "Previous Events").

Based in the Middle East since 2008, Rachel spent almost a decade at Mubadala - one of the world's largest sovereign wealth funds - in their Capital Markets & Treasury team. In 2014 the Association of Corporate Treasurers named Rachel "The One to Watch" in Treasury.

Passionate about helping others become more confident public speakers, Rachel is also the Co-Founder of "The Speakeasy Club", an online training course for Public Speaking that empowers individuals to hone leadership-level speaking skills and build personal confidence.

In 2009 Rachel published her first book - Jandal Prints on the Globe – and helped to establish a charity called Espoir so that sale proceeds could go towards supporting youth entrepreneurship in New Zealand. She is an advisory board member at numerous multi-national corporations.
